Approximately 180 ICRI members and guests recently enjoyed ICRI's 1st Kick-Off Party, held at the ESPN Zone, New York-New York Hotel, Las Vegas, NV. The party, as usual, coincided with World of Concrete, and was held the evening before the exhibits opened there.

The entire second level of the ESPN Zone was open exclusively to ICRI party attendees, who enjoyed plenty of hors d'oeuvres, an open bar, and all the games they could play. Much excitement throughout the evening was generated by the Basketball Tournament and the Air Hockey Tournament (see photos). Special thanks to Katherine Blatz and Dale Regnier, who ran these events.
